

1.913
F-303
Reserve

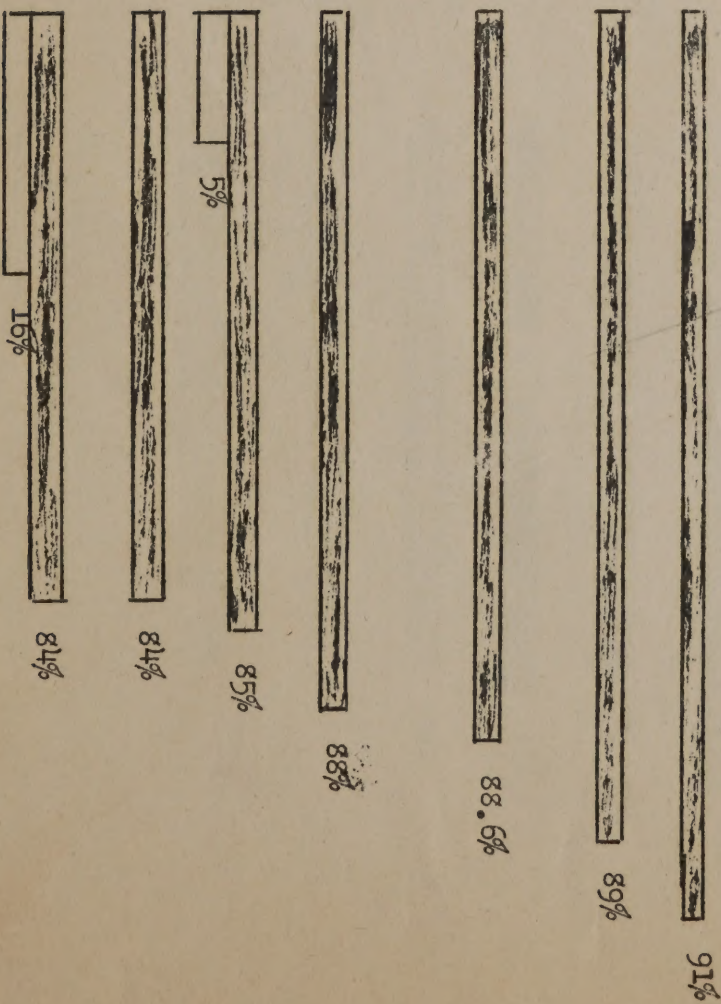

QUESTIONNAIRE A

Summary of 20 State Club Leaders and 18 Home Management Specialist rating objectives for Home Management work in 4-H Clubs.

Solid line shows combination of two columns "extremely important" and of "considerable importance" (weighted by valuing second column 2/3). Open line shows those rated of little or no importance. The rating of "some importance" not shown on graph.

LIBRARY
RECEIVED
★ JAN 17 1944 ★
U. S. Department of Agriculture

- To help the girls sense the real meaning of Home.
- To help girls develop a wholesome philosophy toward life.
- To encourage finer family living through a study of contributions each family member can make and of the resulting enrichment of each member through contribution and sharing.
- To encourage the 4-H girl to plan the best use of her money and to contribute to the family planning of money use.
- To help girls become more self reliant.
- To teach good methods for home tasks.
- To help girls improve living conditions by raising standards of home sanitation.

U.S. Extension Service

1000

II

To help girls find beauty in orderliness and cleanliness.

To interest girls in doing their home tasks with the best use of time, energy and equipment.

To help girls find joy in work well done.

To interest 4-H girl in becoming a good buyer.

To teach the importance of good lighting in the home and methods to help attain it.

To help girls attain a sense of financial, social and home security.

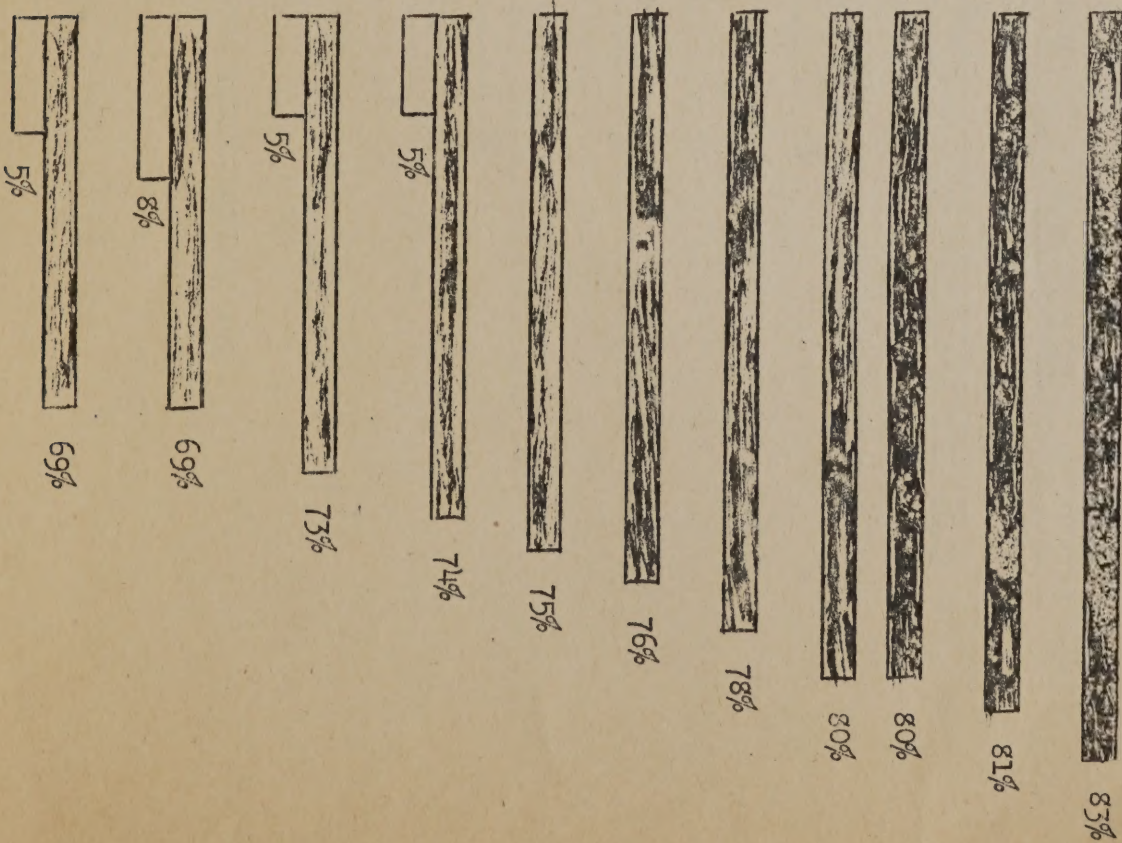

To relate health and good posture to working heights and to working practices.

To help girls understand the value of home production of foods as a means of contributing to the family income (gardening activity).

To help girls analyse and utilize the resources of the home (human and material).

To interest the 4-H girl to consider her relations with and responsibilities toward others in her neighborhood, state and world.

To interest the 4-H girl to make the best use of her money record (analysis to show influence on life).

the first thing that comes to mind is that I am not a very good at all. I am not a very good at all. I am not a very good at all.

the first thing that comes to mind is that I am not a very good at all. I am not a very good at all. I am not a very good at all.

the first thing that comes to mind is that I am not a very good at all. I am not a very good at all. I am not a very good at all.

the first thing that comes to mind is that I am not a very good at all. I am not a very good at all. I am not a very good at all.

the first thing that comes to mind is that I am not a very good at all. I am not a very good at all. I am not a very good at all.

the first thing that comes to mind is that I am not a very good

III

To guide girls in the appreciation of and techniques of choice making.

To interest the 4-H girl in making her home a safer place through elimination of accident hazards.

To help girls plan a better use of their time in terms of days, weeks, months, and lifetimes.

To help girls make a plan for future living (vocational).

To stimulate worthwhile leisure time activities.

To teach the principles that apply to the selection, use and care of efficient household equipment.

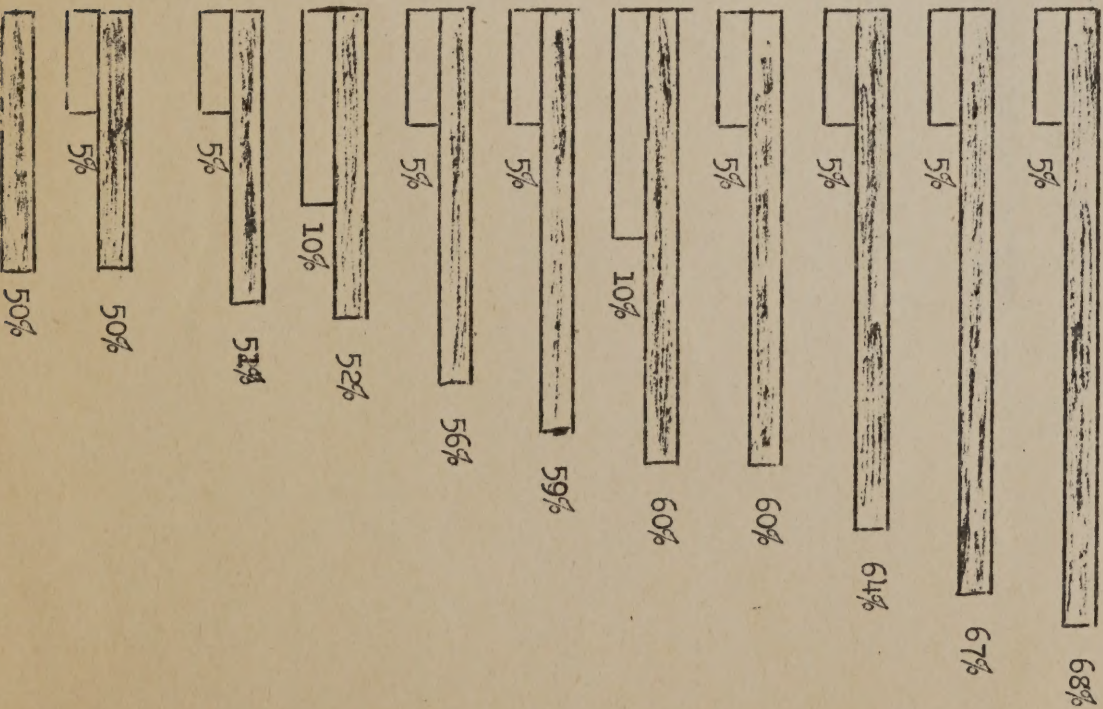

To awaken 4-H girls to a responsibility toward the development of younger sisters and brothers.

To interest girls in improving and beautifying their home grounds.

To make the girl conscious of fire hazards and ambitious to remove them.

To help girls to plan for new and to improve the use of existing space for storage to the best advantage

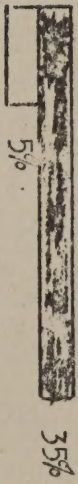

To teach time and energy saving laundry methods

IV

To teach simple household repairs - including electric appliances.

To teach the use of ordinary tools.

Unpublished - subject of research - subject of research

Unpublished - subject of research - subject of research

Unpublished - subject of research - subject of research

Unpublished - subject of research - subject of research